The Secret Millionaire

Real Life, 9.00pm, C4

This series generally focuses on stash-of-cash hand-outs from tough businessmen, so this programme following mum-of-two millionairess Kavita Oberoi has a different, more emotional appeal. The sweet-natured Kavita travels to Ladywood in Birmingham, which suffers high unemployment. She goes undercover to work with a charity supporting asylum seekers and refugees and also discovers a women's support group, which is very close to her heart. The high spot is, of course, the handing over of large cheques. The recipients cry. Kavita cries. In fact, it's all so touching that you may well be moved to tears, too.
