

Oberoi gives voice to sisters

KAVITA OBEROI, MD of healthcare IT consultancy Oberoi Consulting, has appeared in the Channel 4 TV programme The Secret Millionaire.

After 'going underground' to make the TV programme in Birmingham, Kavita has become a Director of women's support centre Martha's Oasis. She is working with them to make 'Sisters with Voices' – a development programme to help young girls fulfil their potential – available nationwide.

"When you work with causes at a grass roots level and really understand what they are trying to achieve, it would have been selfish not to offer my expertise," said Kavita. "Running a charity is just like running a business, the same acumen and experience from a business perspective applies."

Martha's Oasis has found Kavita's personal involvement more valuable than her donation of £25,000. A number of schools and councils have purchased the 'Sisters with Voices' programme as a result of The Secret Millionaire.

"It was the best experience of my life," Kavita said of making the programme and meeting a number of voluntary workers. "I now find more satisfaction and get greater adrenaline surges from my charity endeavours than from making money."
